Lovely Studio Bridge Given By Billini-Brooks

The beautiful Los Angeles studio of Mrs. Teala Billini was the setting for a delightful affair Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Billini and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Brooks entertained a host of friends at an evening of bridge. Honors for high score at bridge were awarded to Mrs. Smith of Chahuenga Park, Miss Sarah McGill of Los Angeles, Mrs. John McMillan of Torrance, and consolation to Miss Katherine Muselwhite of Los Angeles. Ralph Crane of Hollywood was awarded honors for high gentleman's score, Ducl de Kerekjarto second, Almon Gates third, and G. T. Rippey of Torrance consolation.

Following the bridge was an impromptu musical in which visiting artists took part. Those who entertained were Betty Baldrick, dramatic soprano; Bunola Kay, mezzo soprano; Ducl de Kerekjarto, Josef Swickard, and Mme. Teala Billini.

A feature of the evening was a cup shower for the studio, when guests surprised Mrs. Billini with over forty cups and numerous plates. Refreshments were served at midnight.

Present from Hollywood: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crane, Major and Mrs. Kenneth Littlejohn, Mrs. L. H. Donald, Oliver Sollansbee, Mrs. Mary Durie, Mrs. Mackay, Mrs. Land, Mrs. Catherine Tanner, Ducl de Kerekjarto, Josef Swickard, and Mrs. Ventura; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stewart.

From Los Angeles: Mr. and Mrs. Almon Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baldrick, Miss Colette Burns, Miss Katherine Muselwhite, Major Chessman, Betty Baldrick, Mrs. Benson, Bunola Kay, Dean Howard, Ted White, Sarah McGill.

From Chahuenga Park: Mr. and Mrs. John Singlaub, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Sartwell.

From Torrance: Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Lancaster, Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. George Peckham, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Huber, Judge and Mrs. C. T. Rippey, Mr. and Mrs. John McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Levy, Col. and Mrs. N. F. Jamieson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dolley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sammons, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Harold Kingsley, Mr. and Mrs. George Nell, Mrs. Esther Maxwell, Comet and Phillip Brooks.

BALL-PERKINS NUPTIALS TODAY
Miss Cecily Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stevens Ball, became the bride of Mr. Thomas H. Perkins at a lovely ceremony at the Christ Episcopal church at 9 o'clock this morning.

In the presence of the immediate families and friends, Rev. H. H. Kelley performed the ceremony before an arch of greenery studded with pink gladioli and white carnations. A large wedding bell hung from the center of the archway, and baskets of pink gladioli were placed on each side of the base.

Preceding the ceremony, Mary Bryan sang "Sweet Mystery of Life" and "Love You Truly," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Mable Bath. The wedding party came down the aisle at the first strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the bride on the arm of her father, who gave her away. At the chancel steps they were met by the groom and the best man, Edgar Ball, brother of the bride.

The bride's gown was of white georgette, and she wore a picture hat of white. The bridal bouquet was of pale pink rosebuds, lily of the valley, and sparden hair fern. Myrtle Perkins and Mrs. Russell Perry were the bride's attendants. Miss Perkins was attired in a frock of pink net over flowered crepe and wore a hat of pink horsehair braid. Mrs. Perry wore blue, flowered, fringed over pink and a hat of blue. Both carried bouquets of pink Cecil Bruner rosebuds.

Following the ceremony was a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens Ball. Pink and white formed the color motif for the decorations, with pink carnations and greenery attractively arranged about the table. White wedding streamers caught with pink rosebuds fell from the chandelier above the table, where a thirteenth wedding cake formed the centerpiece. Forty guests were bidden to the breakfast.

Interesting to note is the fact that both the bride and groom were born at Tavistock, Devon county, England, and lived in the town just west of their distance from each other. They did not meet until three years ago, when both had moved to Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins left immediately after the breakfast for a short honeymoon and on their return they will reside in Torrance.
